

26th Annual St Johns Mint Festival

Mint Cooking Contest

Sponsored by Clinton County Chamber of Commerce

Rules:

1. This contest is open to everyone!
2. Pre-registration is not required. Entry form found at the bottom must accompany entries. Entry forms will also be available at Smith Hall at the time of the event.
3. The Mint Cooking contest entries are limited to cookies and bars only.
4. Each entry must contain mint as an ingredient.
5. All entries must be accompanied by the recipe and completed entry form. Please put your name on the back of your printed recipe. Recipes submitted may be used by the Mint Festival for future use.
6. Entries must arrive at Smith Hall on Saturday, August 14, 2010 between 1:00 pm and 2:45 pm. They must be in serving size pieces, on a disposable dish, with 8 - 10 servings. Mint Cooking Contest committee will not be responsible to return containers arriving with entries that are not disposable.
7. Judging will begin at 3:00 pm and will be open to the public.
8. Gift baskets will be awarded for a minimum of first, second and third places, and the winning recipe will be featured at a local restaurant.
9. Questions can be addressed to Linda Karek at 989-224-7773 or Jean Ruestman at 989-640-1069.
